The Company expects Child related workers to treat each other with respect and courtesy. Our daily interaction with others reflects on the Company's reputation. Therefore, all Child related workers are expected to be approachable, courteous and prompt in dealing with other people, including students, parents, other employees and members of the community.

- 4.1 Employees who work with students have a special responsibility in presenting themselves as appropriate role models for those students. Modelling effective leadership and respect in your interactions with students can have a profoundly positive influence on a student's personal and social development.
- 4.2 Similarly, it is important for you to treat your colleagues, other employees, contractors, students and parents with respect. Rude or insulting behaviour, including verbal and non-verbal aggression, shouting, abusive, threatening, intimidating or derogatory language and physical abuse or intimidation towards other employees, contractors, students and parents is unacceptable. It is inappropriate for employees to engage in intimate or sexual relationships and/or activities with colleagues, other employees, contractors, students, and parents. Bullying may be a breach of your obligations under work health and safety legislation or your duty of care at common law.
- 4.4 You should ensure that you are aware of the Company/School's Bullying and Harassment Policy. If you believe you are being unlawfully harassed or discriminated against or bullied:
 - (a) Where you feel comfortable ask the person to stop, or make it clear that you find the behaviour offensive or unwelcome. It may be useful to speak with your supervisor or Department Head in the first instance to seek guidance on how to do this; and/or

- 4.6 If you lie about or exaggerate a complaint, the Company will view this as a very serious matter, and you may be disciplined or dismissed.

5. Duty of Care and Work Health and Safety

As a Company employee, you have a duty of care to students in your charge to take all reasonable steps to protect students from risks of harm that can be reasonably predicted. The duty encompasses a wide range of matters, including (but not limited to):

- The provision of adequate supervision
- Ensuring grounds, premises and equipment are safe for students' use
- Implementing strategies to prevent bullying from occurring in School, and
- Providing medical assistance (if competent to do so), or seeking assistance from a medically trained person to aid a student who is injured or becomes sick at School.

Duty of Care

- 5.1 As a Company employee, you have a duty of care to students in your charge. That duty is to take all reasonable steps to protect students from risks of harm that can be reasonably predicted. For example, risks from known hazards and from foreseeable risk situations against which preventative measures can be taken. The standard of care that is required, for example the degree of supervision, needs to be commensurate with the students' maturity and ability.
- 5.2 Duty of care to students applies during all activities and functions conducted or arranged by the School. The risks associated with any activity need to be assessed and managed before the activity is undertaken.
- 5.3 You should ensure that you are aware of the School's guidelines for duty of care.

Work Health and Safety

- 5.4 You also have a responsibility under work health and safety legislation to take care of your own health and safety at work. It is also your responsibility to ensure that your activities do not place at risk the health and safety of your co-workers, students or other persons that you may come into contact with at work.
- 5.5 Considerations of safety relate to both physical and psychological wellbeing of individuals.
- 5.6 You should ensure that you are aware of the Company's Work, Health and Safety Management System and its associated policies and guidelines.
- 5.7 You should ensure that you are aware of and comply with the School's Work, Health and Safety policies, procedures and safe work practices.
- 5.8 You are obligated to actively participate in all company organised training sessions and activities. Failure to participate and comply with training requirements may result in disciplinary action.
- 5.9 You have the responsibility to report injury or illness arising from workplace activities or any non-work related injuries or illness that could affect employee work and safety using the company's incident reporting process.
- 5.10 You are obligated to be proactive in identifying hazards, reporting them to the appropriate person and doing everything reasonably practicable to ensure your own safety and the safety of others, in particular the students.

Supervision of Students

- 5.11 You should take all reasonable steps to ensure that no student is exposed to any unnecessary risk of injury.
- 5.12 You should be familiar with and comply with the School's evacuation procedures.
- 5.13 Students should not be left unsupervised either within or outside of class. You should be punctual to class and allocated supervision.
- 5.14 You should remain with students after School activities until all students have been collected. In the event that a student is not collected you should remain with the student until collected, or seek advice from your supervisor.
- 5.15 Playground supervision is an integral part of the responsibility of staff. It must take precedence over other activities. It is unacceptable to be late. You should actively supervise your designated area, being vigilant and constantly moving around.
- 5.16 You should be alert to bullying or any other form of discriminatory behaviour, intervene where appropriate and report incidents to the appropriate staff member.
- 5.17 Ill or injured students should be attended to by the supervising staff member. Should additional assistance be required you should contact the principal.

- 5.18 You should ensure that you understand and comply with the Company’s policy in regard to the storage and administration of prescribed medication to students.
- 5.19 Ensure supervision of the occupational health and safety aspects of work undertaken by staff and students in the classroom.

6. Professional Relationships between Employees and Students

As a Company Child Related Worker, you are expected to always behave in ways that promote the safety, welfare and well-being of children and young people. You must actively seek to prevent harm to children and young people, and to support those who have been harmed.

While not all employees are required to manage and supervise students, it is important for all School Child related workers to understand and observe the School’s child protection policies.

Supervision of Students

- 6.1 You should avoid situations where you are alone in an enclosed space with a student. Where you are left with the responsibility of a single student you should ensure that this is in an open space in view of others. Where this is not possible or practical it should be discussed with your supervisor and/or the principal.
- 6.2 You should never drive a student in your car unless you have specific permission from your supervisor and/or the principal to do so. In the event of an emergency you should exercise discretion but then report the matter to your supervisor.
- 6.3 If you wish to conduct a private conversation with a student you should consider the time and venue carefully to avoid placing yourselves in a vulnerable situation. It is preferable to conduct the conversation out in the open or leave the door open. You should not locate yourself between the student and the door.
- 6.4 When confiscating personal items, such as mobile phones or hats, ask students to hand them to you. Only take items directly from students in circumstances where concern exists for the safety of the student or others and your own safety is not jeopardised by this action.

Physical Contact with Students

- 6.5 You must not exert physical force on a student in the process of managing that student nor routinely plan to use physical force in your student management techniques. Exceptions would include the following (keeping in mind that there is no expectation placed upon you by your employer to place yourself in harm’s way or risk injury to yourself):
 - (a) Disarming a child or young person seeking to harm themselves or others;
 - (b) Separating children or young people who are fighting;
 - (c) Moving a child or young person out of harm’s way;
 - (d) Restraining a child or young person from causing intentional damage to property;
 - (e) Self defence or the defence of others.
- 6.6 You must not impose physical punishment on a student in the course of your professional duties.
- 6.7 When physical contact with a student is a necessary part of the teaching/learning experience you must exercise caution to ensure that the contact is appropriate and acceptable. You should seek reassurance from the student by asking for a volunteer if necessary to demonstrate a particular activity.
- 6.8 Attention to the toileting needs of young children should be done with caution. It may be appropriate to have the door open. For students with a disability the management of toileting needs should be included in the student's individual management plan.

Administrative Area: Staff and Personnel	Type: Mandatory
Document Name: Staff Code of Conduct	Issue Date: 19 December 2023
Document ID: SQS188.004.EDU	Review Date: Term 4 - 2025

- 6.9 When congratulating a student, a handshake, pat on the shoulder or brief hug (initiated by the student) are acceptable as long as the student is comfortable with this action. Kissing of students is not acceptable.
- 6.10 Assessing a student who is injured or ill may necessitate touching the student. Always advise the student of what you intend doing and seek their consent.
- 6.11 Sometimes in ensuring duty of care you may be required to restrain a student from harming him or herself or others using reasonable force. Any such strategy must be in keeping with the School's behaviour management practices or individual student management plans. You should report and document any such incidents.

Relationships with students

- 6.12 You must not have a romantic or sexual relationship with a student (regardless of the student's age). It is irrelevant whether the relationship is homosexual or heterosexual, consensual or non-consensual or condoned by parents or caregivers. You are reminded of:
 - (a) The law prohibiting sexual relations with a person under the age of consent (16 years); and
 - (b) The law prohibiting sexual relations between a teacher and their student.
- 6.13 You must not develop a relationship with any student that is, or that can be interpreted as having a personal rather than a professional interest in a student. An overly familiar relationship with any student (including any adult student) that you are responsible for teaching, tutoring, advising, assessing, or for whom you provide pastoral or welfare support raises serious questions of conflict of interest, trust, confidence, dependency, and of equality of treatment. Such relationships may also have a negative impact on the teaching and learning environment for other students and colleagues, and may carry a serious reputational risk for the Company.
- 6.14 If you consider that a student is being overly familiar, seeking to establish a personal relationship with you or has developed a 'crush' on you, you should report your concerns to your supervisor and/or the principal as soon as possible so that a plan can be developed to manage the situation effectively and sensitively.
- 6.15 At all times when speaking with students care must be taken to use appropriate language. You must always treat students with respect and without favouritism. There is no place for sarcasm, derogatory remarks, inappropriate familiarity or offensive comments.
- 6.16 You may, as part of your pastoral care role, engage in discussion with students. This is entirely appropriate. However you must be cautious about making personal comments about a student or asking questions that probe your own or a student's sexuality or relationships. You must not hold conversations with a student of an intimately personal nature where you disclose information about yourself.
- 6.17 You must not:
 - (a) Invite students to your home;
 - (b) Visit students at their home; or
 - (c) Attend parties or socialise with students; or
 - (d) Plan to meet students outside of school unless you have the express permission of the principal and their parents or care giver or it is an authorised School or Church activity.
- 6.18 You must not engage in tutoring or coaching students from the School without the express permission of the principal.
- 6.19 You must not invite students to join your personal electronic social networking site or accept students' invitations to join their social networking site (see Section 7 - Appropriate use of electronic communication and social networking sites).
- 6.20 You must not give gifts to students. You should also carefully consider your position before accepting any gift from a student (see Section 10 - Declaring gifts, benefits and bribes).

- 6.21 Wherever practical, you should avoid teaching or being involved in educational decisions involving family members or close friends. Where it is not practical to avoid such situations completely, another member of staff should make any significant decisions relating to the student’s assessments and have those endorsed by a supervisor.
- 6.22 You should be aware of, and sensitive to, children with culturally diverse or indigenous backgrounds and cultural practices that may influence the interpretation of your behaviour.

Child Protection

- 6.23 You must be aware of and comply with the Company’s Child Protection Policy and guidelines.
- 6.24 As set out in Section 3 you must report any concerns you may have about any other employee, contractor or volunteer engaging in ‘Sexual Misconduct’ against a child or young person or any allegation of ‘Sexual Misconduct’ against a child or young person that has been made to you to the principal. This includes self-disclosure if the allegation involves you.
- 6.25 Broadly, ‘Sexual Misconduct’ includes but is not limited to:
- (a) Sexual assaults ranging from indecent assault through a number of offences to rape; and
 - (b) Other forms of unlawful sexual behaviour including such offences as being in possession of child pornography;
 - (c) Acts of gross indecency whether or not the child consents.
- 6.26 The requirements outlined in Section 6 in relation Supervision, Physical Contact and Relationships with Students set professional boundaries in relation to your behaviour. They make clear what behaviour is unacceptable and could amount to ‘Sexual Misconduct’.

Child Related Worker screening

- 6.27 Teachers registered with the Queensland College of Teachers are not required to hold a blue card, as their screening is part of the teacher registration requirements.
- 6.28 A Blue Card is a prerequisite for all other paid and unpaid child related work as set out in the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000. If you are in this category and do not have an exemption, you are to assist the Company or School by applying for a Blue Card and renewing the card before it expires.
- 6.29 If you are an existing child related worker in the Company and not a registered teacher you are to inform the Principal if there is a change in your police information that may affect your Blue Card status.
- 6.30 If you are a registered teacher you are to inform the Principal if there is a change in your criminal history that may affect your Teaching Registration status.

7. Professional Relationships between Employees and Parents/Carers

Employees professional conduct is characterised by the quality of relationships they develop and maintain with parents/ carers. Teachers demonstrate their commitment to supporting and collaborating with parents/carers by:

- 7.1 respecting parents/carers role as primary carer and educator in their child/children’s welfare and learning.
- 7.2 being considerate of parent/carers’ perspectives when making decisions that impact the education or wellbeing of a student.
- 7.3 avoiding inappropriate, intimate, or sexual relationships with parent/carers. This includes sending of inappropriate materials or sexting.
- 7.4 communicating and consulting with parents/carers in a timely, understanding, and sensitive manner.
- 7.5 taking appropriate action to address parents/carers concerns, resolve issues, and promote student wellbeing and learning.

8. Appropriate Use of Electronic Communication and Social Networking Sites

The School provides electronic communication facilities for its students and employees for educational or administrative purposes. It monitors and views data stored or transmitted using the School’s facilities. By its nature, electronic communication is a fast and informal way of communicating. However, once a document or image has been sent there is no way to recall it and it exists forever.

8.1 You must:

- (a) Prepare all correspondence relating to any school activity following the authorised school communication process and send this communication using only school authorised communication channels;
- (b) Exercise good judgment when using internet or telephony based communication channels using the principles of ethical behaviour. These channels include but are not limited to email, short messaging service (SMS), Skype, chat rooms, social networking sites such as Facebook, Twitter, Tumblr, Pinterest, Instagram, Reddit, Snap chat, or any other similar application;
- (c) Use appropriate and professional language in all electronic communication;
- (d) Be aware that if an issue addressed in text based communication becomes the subject of a legal dispute, then those text based communications would be discoverable: that is, the court and all parties to the dispute would be entitled to see them;
- (e) Not send messages that are harassing, discriminatory, defamatory, threatening, abusive or obscene;
- (f) Not use electronic communications to send inappropriate or pornographic materials. This includes sexting;
- (g) Not invite students into your personal social networking sites or accept an invitation to theirs;
- (h) Not use personal or non-school authorised internet or telephony based communication channels to communicate with students. Where there is a wider community context for communication such as leadership in youth groups or other church activities this will need prior approval by the principal and the student’s parents and will be regularly monitored;
- (i) Remember transmission, storage, promotion or display of offensive, defamatory, or harassing material is strictly forbidden; and
- (j) Report any situations where you become aware of the inappropriate use of electronic communication and social networking sites.

- (a) Sexually related or pornographic messages or material;
 - (b) Violent or hate-related messages or material;
 - (c) Racist or other offensive messages aimed at a particular group or individual;
 - (d) Malicious, libellous or slanderous messages or material; or
